seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade a university of sarajevo course english language and literature language english abstract it seems that the 19th century industrial development and generally the period called victorian age was not suitable for the urban writer such as dickens it should not come as a surprise that dickens was not very satisfied with the period he lived in or with people around him the fact that he had already sold the lease on his london house and moved to the swamp north kent marshes before he started to write the novel great expectations may come as a proof for this statement dickens was forty eight then and he could not stand pollution and bad public health or the famous london fog of which he wrote so much in his novels bleak house and our mutual friend there is however always a huge diversion between rural and urban in dickens novels especially in great expectations because of this huge distinction tristan sipley in her work the revenge of swamp thing wetlands industrial capitalism and the ecological contradiction of great expectations divides dickens in the two groups pastoral dickens and gritty urban dickens in great expectations marsh the place where the main protagonist pip lives the marsh is without a doubt showed as a place of wrongdoings criminality and everything bad
